

Hey guys!!!

We know that midterm week can get you feeling down, so we put together a 'Midterm Survival Kit'
to make things a little easier for you.

It's no secret that SKA girls are a Chock-full o' nutty girls, who stay up all night studying - so use this caffeine (even though it's caffeine free) to help you pull those all nighters. When things get sticky, just chew your way out of it with those taffies. We are sure we will make your mouths happy with those twizzlers. We wish you luck on all your tests, and with your new lucky pencils we hope that we gave you the write things to help you survive this week!

~Hugs and kisses~
