Dear cast and crew,

You guys did it! You made it through the three torture filled months of staying after school and coming on Sunday.

Now you get to worry about midterms (that's not our fault)! You'll do great!

We love you guys!

Love your G.O.,
Becky, Jordana, Aviva, Zehava, Rachel, Ally,
And Olivia.

REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SOLD OUTSIDE THE THEATER DURING INTERMISSION

From the Editors

Ever since school has started, Production fever has taken hold of S.K.A. The hallways, both during and after school, have been full of excitement and anxiety with the coming of the performances. Girls stayed until all hours of the night practicing their dancing, singing, acting and instrument-playing abilities.

Many people have worked very hard to make Production 2004 a success: Shanie Schulman and Elana Maslow who were amazing Production Assistants and Rene Frank and Tara Friedman who were incredible Executive Managers. They stayed in S.K.A. until all hours of the night, to make this Production the best ever. This fantastic show is a result of all their hard work.

We would also like to thank Mrs. Spirn, Rabbi Rothman, Rabbi Zak, Dr. Meier, Mrs. Pomerantz, Mrs. Kaminetsky, Estee, Regina, Elyssa, Elana, Mrs. Bryk, Mrs. Wagner, Mrs. Libin, the entire faculty, and the cast and crew for all their patience and dedication, and all their time and effort that made this production possible.

Junior and Senior Studio
Art Students,

Your devotion, creativity,
and awesome talent is truly inspiring. Thank you for all your hard work!
You are miracle workers,
creating beauty from

I am so proud of you,

Mrs. Libin

ישראל בטח בה'

We would like to give a special thanks to Mrs. Libin for her hard work on the amazing sceneries and costumes.

A BIG THANK YOU TO MR. CHAIM HOLLANDER FOR ALL HIS TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE!

To our devoted heads,
We would like to thank you for all the many hours that you committed to this production. You hung in through everything, and we really appreciate everything that you have done for us.
Now you can finally get some rest after all those nights you stayed late in school!
-The Baybill Staff

We tried our best to include everyone. Our sincerest apologies to anyone whose name was inadvertently misspelled or omitted.
-Baybill Staff

Thank you to, Willie (for making the chair) and Caesar and his crew for all the time and effort that they have put into this production

To our outstanding cast and crew,

You guys are unbelievable. You have once again put together a terrific production. All the missed classes, annoying late night practices, and hard work really paid off! Your talent, energy, and dedication have blown us away and made this production truly special. Thank you for all your help with everything, and for making our jobs just a little easier! You did a great job. We couldn't be prouder.

To our exceptional heads,

All we can say is THANK YOU!!! Thank you for putting up with everything (narrations in practices, music, scripts, and much more), and for dealing (or trying to deal) with all the annoyances so well. We love you guys and are soooooo grateful. Everything is amazing and it is all thanks to you! Just remember to relax and have fun out there. We know that you'll do great!!

To Mrs. Wagner,

THANK YOU SO MUCH! Thank you for giving us this opportunity and for allowing us to watch you once again put together an amazing production. Your easygoing demeanor made it a true pleasure to work with you. We can't thank you enough for all you did for us and this entire cast and crew. You have really done it again—and all we can say is WOW!

About Dance

Dance 1

Our dance represents the Brit between Hashem and Noach, that Hashem will never destroy the earth again. The bright colors of our dance come together to create the rainbow that will remind Hashem of this Brit. In our dance, we have a fighting scene to show that no matter what happens, even if there are wars going on in the world, we should always have B'tachon, trust in Hashem that He will keep us safe and stay true to His promise.

Dance 2

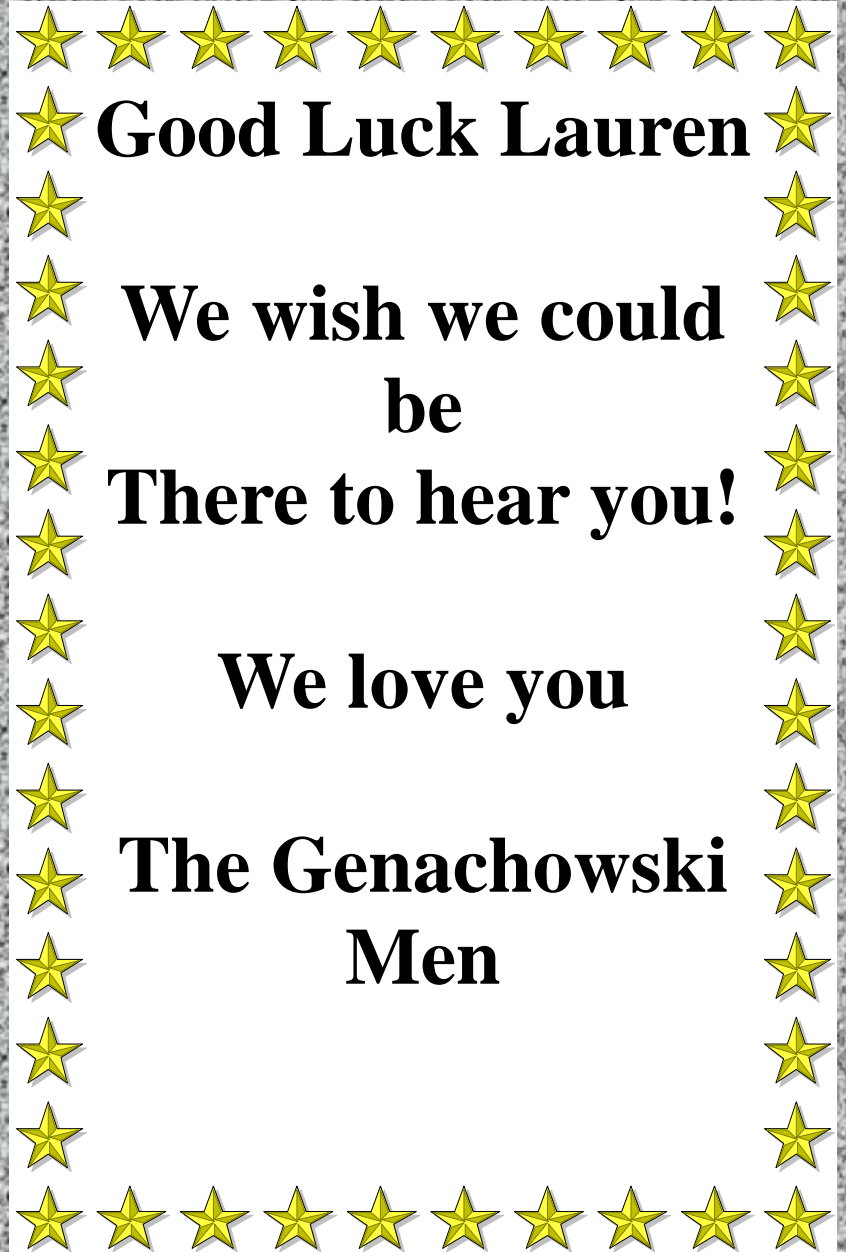

Through the faith that is embedded in our hearts and souls, G-d's miracles are revealed to us. Bnei Yisrael placed extreme bitachon in Hashem at Kriat Yam Suf. It was not until Bnei Yisrael entered the sea and passed all reasonable limits did the water split. In our dance, we separate into the two protective walls that surrounded Bnei Yisrael on both sides.

Exodus 14:21: "Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. G-d drove back the sea with a powerful east wind all that night, and He transformed the sea, and He transformed the sea into dry land.

Dance 3

"Ani ma'amin Be'emuna shelema Beviat hamashiach." One main aspect of the Geulah is Techiat Hametim, which is depicted through the change of music. It is at this point that all of Klal Yisrael can rejoice, portrayed in our joyful and jubilant dance moves.

Dance 4

Throughout life, every person experiences many obstacles and unexpected challenges. The dramatic changes in the music and the costumes in this dance represent the unpredictable twists and turns that life brings our way. Similar to how the dancers depend on and have faith in one another during the dance, each and every Jew must have bitachon in Hashem that He will guide us through life and help us overcome our many hardships.

Dance 5

Just as Bitachon is essential to having a successful relationship with Hashem, so too it is important that we trust in, and rely on, our friends no matter the circumstances. As our dance begins, we come on to the stage as individuals, depending on no one but ourselves. But as the music changes, and the dance progresses, we work together and rely on each more. At first, the music is more foreboding, reflecting the sense of loneliness we feel. As we continue to dance, the music becomes more upbeat reflecting the happiness we feel inside, because we realize that we have friends surrounding us, who we can rely on.

About Drama

Musical Drama

This drama is a prime example of faith. The Jews experienced sorrow, suffering, and pain, yet, they still maintained their faith in Hashem. The story of Yetziat Metzriam is a perfect illustration of bitachon at a time of extreme confusion. We learn from Jews throughout history and specifically here, to always put our trust in Hashem, no matter the situation at hand.

Comedy Drama

Sometimes in our lives, we find our Emunah through different experiences. This skit demonstrates the importance of Emunah. It begins with a discussion of Emunah between four seminary girls. They each reflect on their own lives and what experiences truly gave them the belief they have today.

About Band

Band might be the smallest group in production but that doesn't stop us! Just because it appears as if we're sitting on the floor in the corner, it doesn't mean it's easy! With Sheva Odzer on the piano, Alex Sher on the guitar, and Leora Niderberg on the drums, we are a hardworking trio. Together we are unstoppable! Also, a tremendous thanks to Shani Kaish, the musical genius of SKA.

Lyrics

Chazak

Another siren wails
Just an ordinary day
Was it anyone I know
How could life, go on this way

The holy land of Israel
How much grief can you sustain
We search for words of courage
To help you, ease the pain

Chazak chazak
We stand as one
Chazak chazak
We must be strong
Chazak chazak
We will go on
Ya'aseh Shalom

Our home away from home
The place we hold so dear
Our brothers seeking comfort
And the strength to persevere

A nation of survivors
One family filled with pride
A land of milk and honey
We will always stand...stand by your side

Oseh shalom bimromav
Hoo ya'aseh shalom
Aleinu vi'al kol yisrael
Vi'imeru amain
Vi'imeru amain

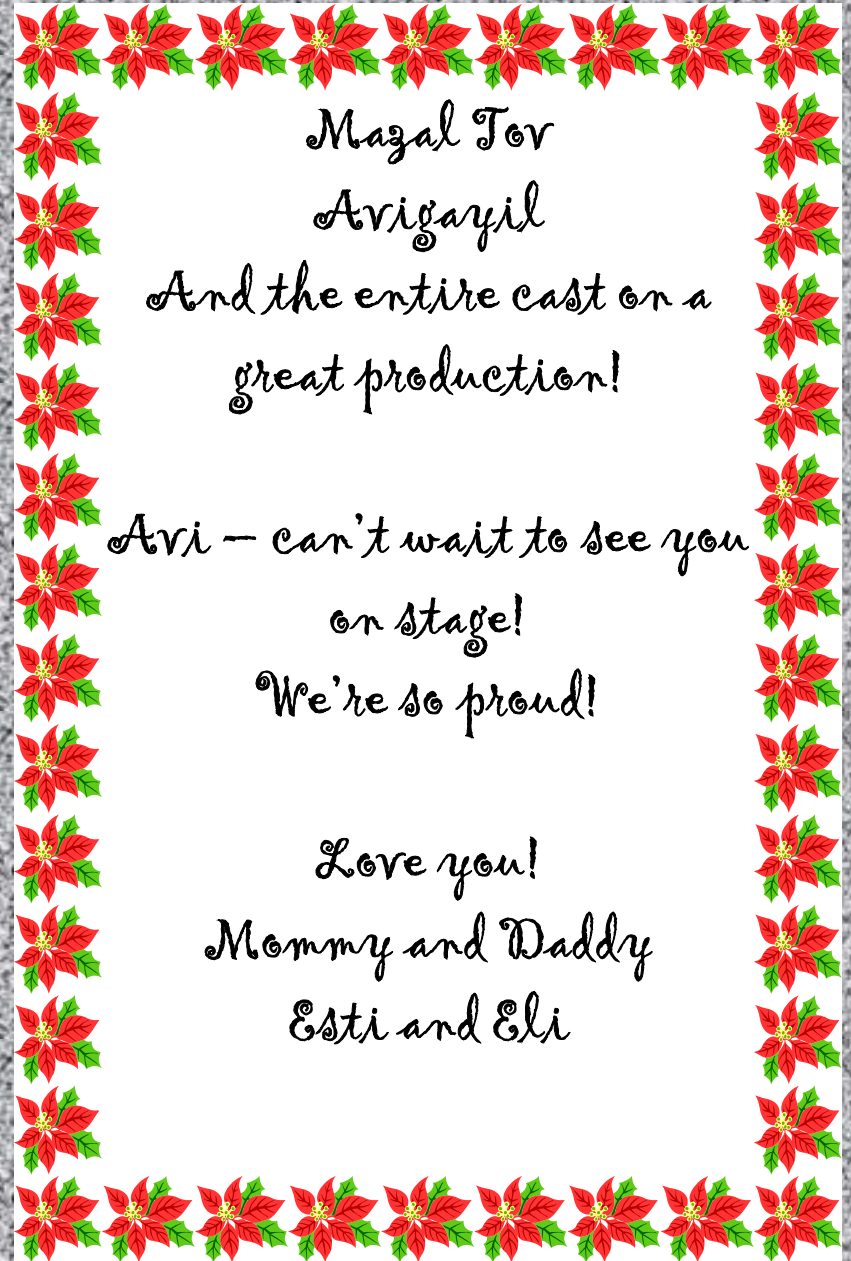

Chazak chazak
We stand as one
Chazak chazak
We must be strong
Chazak chazak
We will go on
Ya'aseh Shalom

Be brave be strong
We stand as one
Be brave be strong
For the land of Zion
Be brave be strong
And hear our prayers
To see shalom
